Noel Coward Foundation

Annual General Meeting 25 September 2008 at 11.00 am

We have always been proud of the Guild’s history and have started an important initiative to research, catalogue, collate, and preserve all archival material with the aim to publish it for the benefit of our members and the general public.

We are immensely grateful to The Noel Coward Foundation
for their willingness to fund an archivist with an initial grant of £3,000 for this project.

The Theatrical Guild will be holding its 116th Annual General Meeting
at 11.00 am on Thursday, 25 September 2008.

As a member and friend of the Guild we would like to encourage you to invite friends whom you believe would like to support the Guild.

Venue details will be posted to you.

The Theatrical Guild’s Archives

We need your help with raising funds for the restoration of our Archive.

In a fireproof filing cabinet The Guild is storing all the minutes dating back to the very first meeting held on the 13th November 1891 and a Scrapbook that is literary falling apart with photo’s, newspaper clippings, programmes from our Tea Parties at the Royal Albert Hall and much more.

First Priority is to raise £3,000 to restore the Scrapbook -
PLEASE HELP by sending a donation to The Theatrical Guild.
